Student Expulsions/Reinstatements/Expulsion Enrollments

1. Student Expulsions - A student is expelled from school if the student is found guilty of a crime or a violation of the school code of conduct that is so serious that the student's continued presence in the school would be a danger to the health, safety, or well-being of the school community. The school administrator must file a written report of the expulsion with the state education department within 10 days of the expulsion.

2. Reinstatements - A student who has been expelled from school may be reinstated to school if the student meets the requirements for reinstatement set forth in the school code of conduct. The school administrator must file a written report of the reinstatement with the state education department within 10 days of the reinstatement.

3. Expulsion Enrollments - A student who has been expelled from school may be enrolled in a new school if the student meets the requirements for enrollment set forth in the school code of conduct. The school administrator must file a written report of the enrollment with the state education department within 10 days of the enrollment.

4. Appeals - A student who has been expelled from school may appeal the expulsion to the state education department. The student must file a written appeal with the state education department within 10 days of the expulsion. The state education department will hold a hearing to determine if the expulsion was justified. If the state education department finds that the expulsion was not justified, the student may be reinstated to school. If the state education department finds that the expulsion was justified, the student may be enrolled in a new school.

5. Other - The school administrator may file a written report of any other student expulsion, reinstatement, or enrollment with the state education department at any time.

6. Reporting - The school administrator must file a written report of any student expulsion, reinstatement, or enrollment with the state education department within 10 days of the action.

7. Penalties - The school administrator may be subject to disciplinary action if the school administrator fails to file a written report of any student expulsion, reinstatement, or enrollment with the state education department within 10 days of the action.

8. Conclusion - This document is intended to provide information about the requirements for student expulsions, reinstatements, and expulsions enrollments. It is not intended to provide legal advice. For more information, please contact the state education department.
